TWENTY AUTOMOBILES TO ESCORT GOVERNOR GIVES ADDRESS TONIGHT

Enthusiastic Welcome Planned by Orange County For Progressive
Leader Who Is Campaigning
Theodore Roosevelt

The Roosevelt meeting at the Grand Opera House will bring people from all over the county. It is expected that the meeting will be the biggest political gathering Orange County has had since Hiram Johnson made for the Republican nomination. Gov. Johnson will make a statement of the issues of the campaign. He is a man who has something to say, and he says it in language that cannot be mistaken.

The Progressives are prepared to give Johnson an enthusiastic reception. This afternoon a number of automobiles filled with men and women voters of Santa Ana left for Fullerton, to meet Gov. Johnson, who is coming to Los Angeles in an automobile accompanied by J. P. Baumgartner and E. E. Keach of Santa Ana. The arrival here will probably be about 5:15.

The Santa Ana Band is to play on the street tonight previous to the opening of the meeting at the Grand Opera House at 8 o'clock. E. E. Keach is to be the master of ceremonies, a candidate for the Republican nomination for congressman, will deliver a short address, and the principal address of the evening will be that delivered by Gov. Johnson.

Booth, of Eugene, Ore., chairman of the revision committee; A. Wallace, of Los Angeles, chairman of the state church committee.

Bishop Eaton read half of his report, and read the remainder tomorrow, it is understood the remaining part takes an advanced stand on flag and divorce; that immigrants inimical to church progress; greed, pride, lust and worldliness invade all churches; that church members are not enthusiastic; it advises consolidation of local and foreign missions.

The Episcopal address said: "The Methodist general conference appreciates efforts to promote church growth by hysterical professions of evangelism. It declares that church growth is arrested because divisive doctrines are not emphasized. It advises consolidation of local and foreign missions."

Bishop Eaton reported an amazing growth in Africa.

ARE TO PICTURE SUGAR BEET INDUSTRY

Moving Picture Concern Will Show Progress From Unbroken Field to Sugar

THIS COUNTY IS SELECTED AS IDEAL

Two Santa Ana Sugar Factories Are to be Used in Taking Various Views

Arrangements are being made by a moving picture concern for taking a series of moving pictures showing many features of the sugar beet industry. The pictures will show the unbroken ground, the plowing and planting, the thinning and the harvest. Orange county has been selected as the ideal place of the United States for the taking of these pictures, which are sanctioned as an educational measure by a national association of factory men.

The dumping of beets and the arrival at the factory will be followed by pictures showing as nearly as possible the process of making the sugar beet into white sugar. These interior views will be taken in the plant of the Southern California Sugar Co.

Another feature of the series will be pictures taken of the plant of the Santa Ana Co-Operative Sugar Co. in the course of construction.

That Orange county should be selected as the place for taking this series of moving pictures is indicative of the fact that it has come to be a great sugar county. With the August campaign, this county will have five big sugar plants in operation, three of them added within the last two years. The industry in this county has come to mean millions of production every year, and the industry is growing more rapidly than ever before.

Three hundred women were loaded on a freight train that had just arrived, and were taken to the hills. Stock was turned loose to fight for life.

Anticipating a break, the government had provisions stored near the town, and there is no danger of hunger for the homeless.

LONG PERIOD OF ACTIVITY

Union, Midway View, Olinda and Orange Are in the Advancing Ranks

Los Angeles Times: Developments in the Fullerton field and vicinity the past several days indicates a long period of activity. The Union, Midway View, Olinda and the Orange companies making the most pronounced advance.

That the Union expects results from its wells in the valley within a short time is forecasted in its preparations for caring for the oil. Plans are now under way for the construction of a 50,000 barrel tank centrally located to the wells now drilling or contemplated.

All the drilling wells of the Union on the new lease are now down between 900 and 1000 feet and work is being vigorously pushed. The formation, according to the logs of the several wells, is said to be most encouraging.

The Midway View Company will start developments in a short time on the five acres that the company holds between the Yriarte and the Fischer leases. The results attained on the Fischer have induced it, it is said, the Midway people, to get down to drilling without further delay.

The Fischer will quit work with the rotary and continue with Standard tools. This decision was reached when conglomerate at 2600 feet depth made work difficult with the rotary. The present formation is the hardest encountered. Also, they are having trouble with water which will have to be cemented off before drilling is continued.

Revival Still Continues

Spurgeon Memorial M. E. church, South, revival services are being well attended, and there are indications of growing interest.

Rev. Paul E. Wright, pastor of the First Christian church, preached a very helpful sermon last night, which was based upon the text, "Call no man your master upon earth, for one is your Master, even Christ." Every member of the congregation at the close of the service expressed the desire for a more perfect consecration to God by arising in response to a proposition made by the pastor. A large number are praying for their loved ones and friends.

Rev. Geo. Husser will preach for us tonight. We shall be disappointed if there is not a large, earnest, prayerful congregation present to hear and publish the word. Come and bring your friends.

FULLERTON'S BONDS SOLD

Placentia Man Takes Good
Roads and Bridge Issues—
Plans For Sewer

Fullerton Tribune: The sale of the good roads and bridge bonds, and the tentative consideration of plans by Sloan & Robson for a city sewer and water system, were the matters of chief importance at the sessions of the city trustees Thursday and Monday nights. The trustees are proceeding in a business-like manner.

Sealed bids were opened Monday night and the bonds were sold to D. M. Campbell Sons & Co., the successful bidder making three different offers, accompanied by certified check for $3000. Mr. Campbell is a wealthy resident of Placentia, having property in that section.

For the bridge bonds in the sum of $13,650—part of the bonds having already been retired—the Campbell company offered par and $214; for the road bonds in the sum of $128,770, par and $1800 premium. The terms of this offer were considered especially favorable as it provides for deferred delivery, money on call. Any sums that the trustees may desire in the course of the work may be secured, and thus interest payments will be reduced. In case of a row with the contractors or a delay for any reason this will prove to have been a wise provision. The Campbell company also offered for the road bonds par and a premium of $1875, $40,000 on approval, and sums of $30,000 in two, four, six months. For immediate delivery, the company bid $2327 premium. The offer with the provision for deferred delivery was accepted.

The other two bidders were the J. H. Adams company of Los Angeles, which offered $171 premium for the bridge bonds and $1675 for the road bonds, immediate delivery; and the W. E. Staats company of Los Angeles, which bid $195 premium on the bridge bonds and $1805 premium on the road bonds, immediate delivery.

With the approval of the bonds the trustees will be ready to call for bids on the bridge and road work as soon as the road commission signifies its preparedness for the task. Within thirty or forty days things should be moving.

Sewer and Waterworks

Sloan & Robson were represented at the meeting Monday night and the sewer question was taken up. The engineers had prepared a map of the sewer system and general plans and estimates. The total cost of sewerage for Fullerton is estimated at $46,000.

This provides for a modern septic tank system for disposal of the sewage and sewer lines throughout the city. The cost to a fifty-foot lot in the residence section would be about $40 to $45, while in the business section it would be proportionately higher. The outlying sections of the city would be scaled down on an equitable basis. Compared with the cost of cesspools the sewer facilities will cost less per residence lot of fifty feet, and certainly be more sanitary.

The question of sewerage will be taken up again by the trustees at a special meeting Wednesday night when a further report will be had by the engineers and a special committee which is investigating the plans.

Waterworks Plans

The engineers have prepared plans for a municipal water system which would unquestionably be a revenue producer and give improved service. The cost would be about $65,000. The water supply would be taken from deep wells to be drilled on the city's five acres in the sand wash in the south part of Fullerton, and pumped to storage tanks which would be erected on the McDermont hill above the city. A plan for one tank containing 1,600,000 gallons and another containing two million gallons were considered. A uniform pressure of 100 pounds all over the city would be constantly maintained. In case of fire there would be ample supply. The trustees have not gone into the matter of the water works quite so fully as the sewer proposition but it is likely that both will be ultimately so handled. With a sewer system provision will have to be made for an increased supply of water for flushing purposes.

SALT LAKE WILL REFUND $20,000

Company Not Affected by Order But Voluntarily Agreed to Abide by Rates

LOS ANGELES, May 2.—Lumber shippers from Los Angeles harbor to local yards are to receive from the Salt Lake Railroad approximately $20,000 the difference in the existing rates between December 7, of last year, when the State Railroad Commission ordered a reduction in the case of the Southern Pacific Company, and March 23 of this year.

The latter company appealed to the courts but was compelled to put the lower rates into effect March 23 of this year, and the sum to be repaid by the Salt Lake represents the money collected up to that date, and which by order of the commission was impounded, pending a settlement by the courts.

The $20,000 excess paid to the railroad and which will now be returned to the shippers represents the over charge of less than four months and means a reduction in the gross freight income of the Salt Lake from the harbor of more than $60,000 a year.

Neither the Salt Lake Railroad, nor the Santa Fe, was affected by the order of the State Railroad Commission, but they voluntarily agreed to abide by the order reducing rates if it was finally determined in favor of the shippers. Repayment will be made as soon as the accounts of the various shippers can be figured up.

"The appeal which the Young Men's Christian Association from time to time makes to business men is not and ought not to be regarded as an appeal for charity. It is, instead, the asking for an expenditure on the part of those to whom the request is addressed as legitimate to the furtherance of their business enterprises as that which is incurred for police and

THE FUTILITY OF VOTING FOR LA FOLLETTE

Editor Chester H. Rowell of Fresno contributes the following review of the pending controversy:

"Roosevelt has been substituted for La Follette as the Progressive leader, not by the 'treachery' of anybody—there is no traitor who could have delivered that substitution if he had tried—but by the overwhelming sentiment of the Progressives of the United States, since confirmed by their votes, wherever the issue has been put to test. It is a substitution now accepted by everybody but La Follette, and by him everywhere except in California.

"La Follette has himself said, in a recent installment of his biography, that the danger to the Progressive cause is the dividing of the vote among Progressive candidates. He has experienced defeat in Wisconsin from that cause.

"There is no sane man who now believes that the Progressive vote can be united on La Follette. Most of it has already voted for Roosevelt. There is nothing but Mr. La Follette's individual candidacy, persisted in against the urgent advice of every important friend and supporter he has in the world, that prevents the union of the Progressive forces on Roosevelt. They are so united, everywhere except in California, and they are so united here, except to the extent that Mr. La Follette's personal influence can divide them.

"It is scarcely possible for that influence to succeed, in a situation so plain, and if it did its only result would be a serious set-back to the Progressive movement in this state, where it has achieved its most inspiring triumph. The only thing gained (and the only purpose) of such a division, would be the 'punishment' of certain persons whom Senator La Follette makes the scape-goats of a popular stampede which he thinks they started, but which in fact they did their best to prevent."

BUSINESS AND SANITATION

It can hardly be considered the loftiest view which is advanced by Prof. E. W. Hope, medical health officer of Liverpool, that pounds, shillings and pence have been the mainspring of sanitary progress. Yet much hygienic progress has been made in response to the demands of commerce. Where business considerations are weighty and guided by far-sighted intelligence, there health measures are appreciated and enforced—to the benefit of the whole community. Those diseases which have impeded commerce have been the first to disappear. While the infantile diseases, for example, have declined in virulence, they have by no means been brought to or near the vanishing point of typhus, cholera, small-pox, yellow fever and the tropical malarias. The hygienist's authority waxes great in the community which learns that sanitary progress is essential to assured and profitable business development. International quarantines have been established very largely as a help to business. Small-pox is practically extinct in those ports where commerce would be interrupted by the detention of vessels and cargoes. If there were large commercial interests at stake in the elimination of pulmonary tuberculosis from the community, that disease would have to go. It may be that typhoid fever will become extinct as soon as the American people grasp the meaning of its destructiveness.

It will be said, and rightly, that this is not an altogether just view of the motives underlying the application of sanitary science to the affairs of civilization. Humane considerations are paramount in sanitary propaganda; it would be a grave error to hold that the work of men like Gorgas, Koch, Manson, Haffkine and Ross has been done merely to advance business interests. Nevertheless, an element of altruism is essential to sound and wholesome business enterprise. There is, of course, says The Journal of the American Medical Association, a false, parasitic prosperity, not founded on the well-being of the community from which it draws its sustenance; but this does not affect the fact that any community which wants to be prosperous must be healthful. And it has again and again been demonstrated that any community that strives to hide its lack of sanitation will ultimately ruin its business prospects by such duplicity. The history of recent epidemics and certain Italian ports demonstrates this beyond peradventure, were any demonstration needed.

Why Women Should Vote for Mr. Roosevelt

ROOSEVELT'S IDEALS Article II.

In every office Theodore Roosevelt has held in his home state and in the nation he has consistently and persistently opposed and exposed corrupt men, predatory organizations and evil practices. He aroused the moral consciousness of the United States as it had never been aroused before. It was he who demanded common honesty and common decency in business and politics alike. He has always placed human rights above all others. He has been the courageous champion of every cause which has made for the betterment of conditions affecting the homes, the women and children of this land. He has originated governmental policies in keeping with his ideals, many of which found fruition during his administration, while others are being adopted from time to time.

Bureau of Child Welfare
In an address delivered before the Annual Convention of the National Child Labor Committee in July, 1911, Col. Roosevelt said: "We cannot get on well unless we have the right kind of homes, the right kind of family life in this republic; we cannot get on well unless the children of this generation are trained as they ought to be trained, and live the kind of lives that will make good citizenship in the next generation."

"We are trying to work for the limitation of the hours of labor for children all over the country, and for raising the age at which children can be employed in labor at all. We are hampered at every step by the fact that in making any effort in any one state, there is no body to which we can turn for information as to what has been done and how it has succeeded in other states."

The foregoing explains and illumines the motive which actuated Col. Roosevelt, when as far back as 1905 he commenced his campaign to secure the creation of a Bureau of Child Welfare as one of the departments of the national government. The battle began when Col. Roosevelt caused the introduction of a bill, formulated with his approval by the National Child Labor Committee, known as the District of Columbia Child Labor Bill, the purpose of which was to pioneer the way by putting an end, within the District of Columbia, to the enslavement of childhood in industry. Col. Roosevelt did not content himself with placid approval, but he sent a special message to congress favoring the bill; then he got out his "Big Stick" to back up the message and forced the passage of the bill. In his ensuing message to congress he recommended the establishment of a Federal Children's Bureau, and sent thereafter two additional special messages to congress advocating the measure. Big Business was bitterly opposed to the Roosevelt program of protecting the little children of the United States; because Big Business makes big profits from the labor of little children. The fight continued as long as Roosevelt was in office and was the basis of a campaign of education which is just now reaching its culmination in the establishment of such a bureau in one of the Cabinet departments of the government. When the Constitution of Oklahoma was framed, Col. Roosevelt induced the people of that state to place in their organic law a provision making possible an adequate Child Labor Law. Thereafter the Oklahoma legislature enacted such a statute at its first session; but Governor Haskell vetoed it. Haskell was then treasurer of the Democratic National Committee. Roosevelt attacked and denounced Haskell for this act, with the result that public opinion forced the Oklahoma Governor to surrender the national treasury of the Democratic party. Theodore Roosevelt was never afraid to face the children of Big Business or political machines who human rights and human welfare were matters of consideration.

Employment of Girls and Women
In a recent communication to the National Child Labor Committee, Col. Roosevelt again demonstrated his keen interest in the well-being of humanity, and especially that of working girls and women. Advising the committee he said: "I hope you will see to it that wherever women are employed, young girls or older women, that the conditions of employment, as regards the length of hours, as regards the conditions, such as for instance as furnishing them seats where they can sit down, are such that the women shall not end each day's work utterly worn out, and each day's work with such strain upon her body, upon her physical constitution that she cannot help being a physical wreck before she has passed half the years that she should pass through. Remember that the human being is the most important of all products to turn out. I am eagerly anxious to do everything I can to wake up our people to the need of protecting the soil, protecting the forests, protecting the water, but first and foremost, protect the people. If you do not have the right kind of citizens in the future, you cannot make any use of the natural resources. Protect the children—protect the boys; still more, protect the girls; because the greatest duty of this generation is to see to it that the next generation is of the proper kind to continue the work of this nation."

CLEAN MILK AT REASONABLE PRICE

The demand for healthy, clean milk and the revolution in its method of production have tended to increase its cost, and as more exacting demands are made on the producers higher prices may be expected. In a recent address before the Chamber of Commerce of Rochester, N. Y., Dr. John R. Williams attempted to show how this cost could be kept within reasonable bounds, or even at lower cost than at present. He called attention to a number of practical points in the economical production of milk. In some instances land near cities worth as much as $1500 an acre is used for dairying purposes, making the overhead charges so great that milk cannot be produced profitably at a moderate price. In other instances, attempts are made to pasture large areas of land, when by more intensive methods feed for the same number of cattle could be produced on a much smaller area.

Lack of economical methods in the distribution of milk also has much to do with increased cost. Williams says that half of what the consumers pay for milk goes to pay for the delivery from the railway depot to the home. The overlapping of routes of distribution is also a source of increased cost to the consumer and of lessened profit to the distributor. Williams gives concrete figures as applied to Rochester to show how milk could be delivered to consumers at lessened cost with increased profit to the producer. His solution of the problem regarding distribution would be the leasing of the privilege of distributing milk to a smaller number of distributors.

This multiplication of small retailers or distributors of food is recognized by The Journal of the American Medical Association as being one of the elements in the high cost of living, but in the case of milk in the large cities the objection of Williams as to distribution may not apply, as the business is sometimes in the hands of several large distributors who have apportioned the territory among themselves. Here, however, enters the question of monopoly, and the practical result is not a lowering of the price but the opposite. The points made by Williams, however, are well taken, and apply with especial force to the smaller cities. A plan for the public regulation of distribution and the elimination of a large number of small distributors would help to solve the problem of the price of milk.

THE ONE ARGUMENT

The argument, and the only one, the Roosevelt Progressives have to make to the La Follette Progressives is this: Senator La Follette has the support of Wisconsin and North Dakota, a total of 36 votes; he has failed utterly in Illinois, Nebraska and Oregon, and stands no chance of winning California. He is not a candidate in any other state. The vast body of Progressives in the United States is supporting Roosevelt. To detract from Roosevelt's strength clearly adds strength to Taft, and in California a vote for La Follette endangers the state's Progressive movement.

To the complaint that Roosevelt did not go forward far enough with his work when president, the answer is this: He made much greater progress than any other man could have made, with a hostile congress on his hands, with public opinion unenlightened, and without a progressive movement to sustain him, as there is now.

In violation of a long-standing rule of the Harbor board, and demanding a privilege granted to no other party or persons, the Taft men sought to placard the State's buildings on the San Francisco waterfront. When rules and regulations were shown them, they at once set up a howl about "unfair tactics."

The Democratic leaders of California had hoped, for their party welfare, that the Republicans would give their state delegation to Taft. This hope was abandoned two weeks ago. High Democratic authority now admits a triumphant sweep for Roosevelt, both north and south of the Tehachapi.

In 1904 Roosevelt carried California by 116,000 majority. In 1908 Taft won the state by 86,000.

TAFT'S LETTER MAY CAUSE THE UNDOING OF BRYCE

LONDON, May 2.—The recall of British Ambassador to America Bryce is threatened, according to reports, resulting from the publication of letters of President Taft to Colonel Roosevelt in which Taft states that America would get the better of the deal under the proposed terms of reciprocity with Canada. Reports current on the streets that Bryce has already been recalled are unconfirmed. President Taft's letter as published will soon be considered in the House of Commons. The Conservatives plan to demand why Ambassador Bryce did not report Taft's views. The evening papers openly state that Taft's advocacy of the treaty when he believed America was getting better terms was an "unfriendly act."

MAP OF NORTH AMERICA

The United States Geological Survey Issues New Map of Continent

How many people would guess that the Atlantic end of the Panama Canal is on the west coast of Panama and that the Pacific end is on the east coast? Look at the map and see how the east coast of the Isthmus becomes a west coast. Although there is nothing new in the publication of a map of the continent of North America, it is worthy of note that the United States Geological Survey has just issued a large map of North America, 28 by 38 inches, in three colors. This is probably the most accurate general map of its character that has yet been published and is particularly well adapted for school work. It is on a scale of 158 miles to 1 inch, which is sufficient to show in considerable detail the major geographical divisions, such as states and provinces. Colorado thus extends 2 1/2 inches east and west and Cuba 4 1/2 inches the longest way. The map is sold by the Director of the Geological Survey, Washington, D. C., at the nominal price of 20 cents a copy, or at a discount of 40 per cent if cases as many as 25 maps are ordered. This whole sale rate covers simply the cost of paper and printing.

ENTERTAINED GOVERNOR

State's Executive and Party Guests at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Baumgartner

Governor Hiram Johnson, who is making a tour of Southern California in the interests of Theodore Roosevelt for president particularly and of the progressive cause generally, will with his party be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Baumgartner during the stay in Santa Ana.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Crookshank and Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Davis, have been invited to meet Governor Johnson and his associates at a dinner party this evening. Dinner will be served at 6:30, with covers for ten, including Mr. and Mrs. Baumgartner and their sister, Mrs. Ella Palmer.

It will be a May-time dinner, with fragrant pink roses massed in a cut glass jardiniere in the center of the table. Individual baskets of dainty pink roses and pink tinted cups of salted almonds will be at each plate.

Elected Officers
The Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church held their annual meeting for the election of officers yesterday afternoon, and the following were elected:

Mrs. C. E. Dutton, president; Mrs. Kroll, vice president; Mrs. Watry, second vice president; Miss O. L. Edgerton, secretary; Mrs. Charles Lyon, treasurer.

At the close of business the usual monthly tea was served, after which several speeches were made, the keynote of which was a deep feeling of appreciation of the faithful services of the retiring officers. Mrs. Geo. L. Wright has served as treasurer continuously for nineteen years and Mrs. Dell Andre has been secretary since 1893, with only three intervals of a year each. The sentiment prevailing as to their faithful service was: "Do we commonly realize how much of devotion and self-denial is involved in the punctual, faithful, efficient discharge of the duties of such officers?"

"When God helps all the helpers for His world," surely the long-term, unpaid workers in a good cause "shall have help of Him not last."

The society is in a prosperous condition, having during the year received a good share of accessions from among the new-comers to our city.

An Economics Meeting
The second section of the Economics class of the Ethel had a very pleasant and instructive meeting yesterday afternoon with Miss A. Wells, East Fifth street.

Those on the assisting committee were Mrs. Deimling, Mrs. Fred Parsons and Mrs. O. K. Porgy. After the business meeting Mrs. Deimling gave a most interesting talk on "Canned Fruits and Canned Meats."

A number of pure food canned articles were passed around for the inspection and discussion of those present.

A social hour followed the program, and delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Parent-Teachers' Association and Guests Heard Good Talk on "Playgrounds"

The entertainment given last evening in the high school auditorium under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers' Association of the high school was deserving of a larger attendance than was present. A small but appreciative audience greeted the speaker, Dr. Beach, and the singers.

The young men's quartet, composed of Harry Warner, John Simmons, Roy Elliott and David Todd, sang several selections and the young men were repeatedly encored. Mrs. Z. B. West, the president, not being present, Prof. Bartlett presided. Miss Tyrrell, secretary of the association, read the minutes of the last meeting. This being the time for the election of officers, the nominating committee reported that as the officers elected at the time of the organization had not served for one year, the same officers had been asked to serve for another year, which action was approved by the association. The following are the officers: President, Mrs. Z. B. West; first vice president, Mr. J. R. Baker; second vice president, Mrs. T. A. Winbiger; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Wallace; recording secretary, Miss Tyrrell; treasurer, Mrs. Jessie Burns.

The committee in charge of last evening's program was Mrs. Harry Dean, Mrs. Catland and Prof. Clayton. The committee who will have charge of the program for June, is Miss Shatto, Mrs. Lea Warren and Mrs. W. B. Tedford.

The committee on program were fortunate in securing the services of Dr. Everett Beach, director of physical education and playgrounds of the city schools of Los Angeles, who gave a helpful and practical address on the subject of "Playgrounds," illustrating the lecture by views of other playgrounds throughout the state and in other places. Dr. Beach opened his remarks by going back to pre-historic ages and coming up to the developing of the child life. He stated that all influences that tend to evil are made attractive for the purpose of drawing the child on, such as saloons being furnished with games, easy chairs, tables with games, etc. Dance halls are made fascinating and attractive and parks and other places. He asked: "Why not have playgrounds for the children's own use? They cannot go to the park or the vacant lot or the field to play, but should have a place of their own, where all could go and be supervised, and where suitable games would be provided."

"There is no place where you can become acquainted with the child better than the playground," said Dr. Beach.

"Outdoor life is the suitable place for the child. All things that tend to evil can be eliminated. You can get the confidence of the child; his judgment is developed; his power is taught; standards are developed; take a child when he has no opportunity to play and he is abnormal. All these things are conducive to raising standards. The playgrounds should be carefully equipped with the kind of games that are educational. Great care should be taken in selecting the best."

A rising vote of thanks was given Dr. Beach for his splendid lecture.

Missionary Meeting
The Women's Missionary Society of the United Presbyterian church held a very pleasant meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Albert Finley, 620, East Fifth street. A large number of ladies were present, also a number of visitors, some of whom are recent arrivals from the East. Mrs. W. L. C. Samson, the president, was in the chair. Mrs. Will Lindsey led the devotional service.

The subject for the program was "Asia's Own Opinion." "The Value of the Testimony of the Christian of Asia" was read from the book, "The Light of the World," by Miss Minnie Cowan. Mrs. Amos Cox read an interesting paper on "Proofs of Christianity's Influence in Non-Christian Lands."

Mrs. Maggie Isley read a paper on "The Hopefulness of the Missionary Enterprise." Several others added a few remarks to the subject. Roll call was answered by the name of an Asiatic Christian. Mrs. Raitt gave a good report from the Federation of Missionary Societies, which met recently in the Baptist church, and stated that a paper read at that meeting by Mrs. Irene Williams would be read at some meeting of this society.

As the time for entering the new church is drawing near, the society will have charge of a congregational supper to be given in the church on Tuesday evening after the dedication of the new church. Mrs. J. E. Kellogg, Mrs. A. Getty, Mrs. F. L. Andrews were appointed a committee to have charge of the supper.

Words of sympathy were expressed for Mr. and Mrs. Dean and Mrs. James Dean on the death of the husband and father. Sympathy was also expressed for the family of the beloved sister, Mrs. George Smith, who has recently gone from earthly scenes. Mrs. Aldball, Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. D. L. Anderson were appointed a committee to form resolutions on the death of Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. Finley was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Currie, Mrs. R. S. Anderson and Mrs. C. C. Collins, who served delicious brick ice cream and cake.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. S. H. Finley, 1633 East Fourth street.

Ladies' Aid Society
The Ladies' Aid Society of the German Lutheran Trinity church held their regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Rev. H. O. Michel, 609 E. Street. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent.

Pleasant Event
One of the social functions of the First Baptist church occurred last evening at the home of the superintendent of the Intermediate Christian Endeavor Society.

Mrs. E. J. Foster, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. R. J. Hamilton, gave the executive committee and a few others a most happy time. After attending to necessary business, and deciding upon May 14 as the date of the Blues' entertainment in honor of the Blues' literary and musical hour was enjoyed, closing with charades, and delightful refreshments.

Methodist Societies
The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, held a meeting on Tuesday afternoon at which Mrs. W. D. Baker presided. All ladies of the church were decided to have a membership in the Aid Society. The ladies tied comforts during the afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon the Woman's Home Missionary Society held a meeting at the church with Mrs. Weissman presiding. A committee was appointed to consider the advisability of forming a mission society among the children of the church. The committee includes Mesdames C. W. Burns, W. B. Snow, Barrows, S. M. Davis and Miss Kate Sullivan.

The annual mite box opening was announced to be held on June 5, at the home of Mrs. S. M. Davis, with Mesdames Jayne, W. H. Smith, C. A. Robinson, Stearns, O. M. Newman in charge.

Mrs. W. B. Snow and Mrs. Visel were in charge of the program yesterday afternoon, which consisted of a discussion of "Non-Christian Faiths of America." The devotions were led by Mrs. Raugh.

Canton Ladies' May Party
The regular meeting of the Ladies' Canton held in I.O.O.F. Hall yesterday afternoon was in the nature of a May party and proved to be a delightful affair. Mesdames J. C. Clark, W. W. Chandler and W. J. Cozad, the committee of ladies in charge, had transformed the banquet hall into a bower of beauty, for the occasion. Baskets of bride's roses adorned the tables. The favors were pink May baskets filled with sweets. Delicious ice cream and cake were served by the committee of ladies.

During the business meeting the ladies voted to serve a chicken dinner next Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock, at I.O.O.F. Hall, to the members of Santa Ana Canton, in honor of the meritorious work of the Santa Ana chevaliers, who were chosen by the state to confer the decoration of chivalry on members of the order at Long Beach, Friday, April 26, on the ninety-third celebration of the organization of the I.O.O.F.

Their Wooden Wedding
Sixty or more members of the congregation of the Reformed Presbyterian church, and other friends, took possession of the home of Rev. and Mrs. Geo. N. Greer on Third street, last night. They were uninvited, and the assemblage was a complete surprise to the pastor and his wife. But it was a very happy surprise, and the evening wended its way through the "corridors of time" with a real clock-stop movement of joy.

The occasion for the unexpected and friendly visit was the fifth wedding anniversary of the Greers. This particular anniversary is known as the "wooden wedding," and to properly celebrate it, there was a huge basket full of wooden articles, ranging from matches and a rat trap, to a potato masher. The bride and groom of five years' standing unwrapped the packages amid a chorus of merry remarks with which they were in full sympathy.

Then there were games and music, all planned beforehand by the surprise. And finally, to cap the climax of gift making, T. L. Paris, on behalf of the party, presented Mr. and Mrs. Greer with a handsome, furnished oak telephone stand set. Fitting responses were made by the recipients, and it was hard to decide whether husband or wife was the most happy in the brief little talk.

A generous supply of refreshments, taken in by the invaders, was served after all the other ceremonies of the evening, making a cheerful close to a happy event.

Harper-Marsh
Yesterday at noon, Miss Harriet Elizabeth Marsh of Los Angeles and William C. Harper, Jr. of the same city, were married at the Congregational church of Santa Ana, the officiating clergyman being the uncle of the bride, Rev. Chas. H. Secombe. The church was prettily adorned with May roses of white and pink, and the bridal flowers, dainty, fragrant orange blossoms. The bride carried a bouquet of the lovely orange blossoms, and as she entered the church with the bridal party, Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus pealed out its musical and significant strains, played by Alan A. Revell on the pipe organ of the church. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as the bride and groom departed from the church.

Those who witnessed the simple but impressive ceremony that united two loving hearts in life-long union, were Mrs. Chas. H. Secombe, Dorothy and Frederick Secombe; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Barber of Los Angeles, uncle and aunt of the groom; Miss Mary Marsh, the bride's sister, and Ennis L. Andrews, both of Los Angeles.

The party proceeded to the Dragon after the ceremony, and a wedding luncheon was partaken of in the famous balcony. Following the bridal feast, the bride and groom and the others from Los Angeles, returned to that city, the journey both ways being made in automobiles.

Mrs. Harper, as stated before, is the niece of Rev. Secombe, and Mr. Harper is a member of the Harper contracting firm of Los Angeles.

For the sake of the highly esteemed uncle of the bride, Rev. Mr. Secombe, and his family, and on the general principle that "all the world loves a lover" (and his bride), the Register sincerely wishes happiness, health and wealth to Mr. and Mrs. Harper.

IF YOUR LIVER IS INACTIVE AND BOWELS WAST--CLOGGED

Delicious "Syrup of Figs" Removes the Sour Bile, Foul Gases and Waste From the System Without Gripe or Nausea—Regulates Your 30 Feet of Bowels

Primitive folks did not need laxatives. They lived outdoors, ate plenty of fruit, and all of their food was coarse. We modern people are different. We exercise too little, eat little fruit, and our food is too fine—too rich.

We simply can't have our ten yards of bowels clogged up, liver choked with sour bile and stomach full of foul effete matter and feel well. It means that the food and waste retained in the stomach and thirty feet of bowels ferments—decays. The decay creates poisons, gases and acids, and those poisons are sucked into the blood through the very ducts intended to suck in the nutriment. Then we have sick headache, become dull, bilious, tongue coated, nervous, meals don't digest, and we feel miserable all over. So we must make our choice.

We must live like primitive folks, else we must take artificial means to move the excess bile and waste matter on and out of the system.

The safest, most harmless and effective stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator for men, women and children—is the delicious Syrup of Figs which doesn't irritate, gripe or weaken. Its effect is the effect of fruits. It is composed of entirely luscious figs, senna and aromatics. Don't think you are drugging yourself. Syrup of Figs can be constantly used without harm.

Ask your druggist for "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," and see on the label that it is prepared by The California Fig Syrup Company. This is the only genuine—the old reliable. Refuse, with contempt, the so-called Fig Syrup imitations sometimes offered to deceive you.

Orchards

Already planted may now be bought in the Yucalpa valley. These places were set one and two years ago for Winesaps, Rome Beauty and Arkansas Blacks, and the trees have made a fine growth, having been well cared for by competent orchardists. Yucalpa trees begin to bear the third year and yield a handsome income the fourth year, which increases for many, many years as the big trees in the upper valley prove. The number of planted orchards on the market is very limited and soon will be bought up for this season. They are elegant investments for people who do not wish to plant and care for their own places. Competent orchardists in the valley will plant and prune for $10 per acre per year, and do it right. They make a business of caring for orchards. The improvements in the valley are advancing at a lively rate. Planting hundreds of acres, grading streets, finishing the laying of the water mains, building homes, opening stores, and starting two churches. The elegant new grammar school building is completed and is being occupied last week. We should have stated above that the planted one year orchards may be bought on the same easy terms as the land is sold only six per cent interest on deferred payments. And don't forget the new subdivision now ready in the lower valley adjoining famous Redlands. Come now, go with us to see for yourself this beautiful valley only 40 miles from Orange county. We go two or three times a week. Free trips through valley.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Eggs declined one cent all around yesterday, new quotations ranging from 17 to 20 cents a dozen. Receipts from all points, as posted, were 921 cases.
Cabbage by the hundred dropped to $2.25-$2.50, and by sack to $1.65 and $1.75. The drop is due to the arrival in quantity of new crop stock, especially from near-by producers. The quality in the market yesterday was the best so far this year, there being practically no poor stock on hand.
Asparagus was steady at 7 and 9 cents a pound. Lettuce was weak, there being too much inferior stock on hand to sustain prices. Cucumbers were down to $1.35 and $1.75 for the better grades, while inferior sold as low as 50 cents a box.
The market for fruit was steady, with ample supply of storage stock on hand when augmented by strawberries, which arrived in large quantities. The demand for apples, pears and other last year's fruit was good.
Grain and feed advanced at the local mills. The advance ranged from 5 to 10 cents; the principal change being made in alfalfa, meal, corn, bran, shorts and wheat.

Double Track is a Possibility of Next Few Months—Five New Members

At a meeting of the directors of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce last night, the committee on railroads reported that the Pacific Electric officials hoped to be able to complete the double track between Buaro and Benedit on the Santa Ana line some time this year.

The committee appointed to investigate the advisability of re-numbering the city, with blocks numbering north and south from Fourth street instead of from First street, reported that it had interviewed directors of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association, and had come to the conclusion that it was not advisable to attempt the re-numbering at this time.

New members added to the Chamber of Commerce as reported by Secretary Metzgar were Dr. H. J. Stevens, J. W. Carlyle, Morton Dairy Company, George Balderston and Frederick Eley.

First Cherries on the Market

NOTES IN THE FULLERTON NEWS

Piacentia
C. C. Chapman has let the contract for drilling a twenty-inch well on Chapman Acres, in East Piacentia. The Round Table treasury has been enriched about $126, proceeds of the banquet furnished the Associated Chamber of Commerce. The Philharmonic Society held a delightful meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Pendleton last Friday evening. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Florence M. P. on Friday evening, May 10. Dr. Robert Coyle, of Denver, who, with his wife and daughter, are guests of H. H. Coyle, filled the pulpit of Immanuel Presbyterian church in Los Angeles, morning and evening, the past two Sundays. Dr. Coyle was at one time Moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly, and is well known throughout the United States as a forceful and eloquent speaker.

MORE JOBS THAN MEN TO TAKE THEM

Orange News: The ratio of jobs to men in Orange at the present time is about ten to one, according to the P. T. Club employment bureau, which is not nearly able to supply men for the positions offered.

This bureau was opened by the P. T. boys' class of the Christian church for the purpose of assisting men to find work. It has, under the management of V. D. Johnson, been doing remarkable work in this direction, having placed a number of men in jobs. Just now there is a dearth of men seeking employment and an over supply of work.

The work of the bureau is conducted without charge to anyone, being one of the activities of the P. T. class. This class is rapidly increasing in number so that there is no room in the church now for it to meet conveniently, and the members are planning to put up a large tent near the church.

HAD CLOSE CALL IN HIS PUMPING PIT

Fullerton News: Ralph Carhart had a mighty close call on Saturday last while at work in the pit of his pumping plant. Something going wrong with the machinery, he descended into the well while the pump was in action, and in some manner his clothing became caught in the shafting, stripping him of his overalls and pants, and bruising his person considerably. But for his clothing giving way as it did, he might have lost his life in the pit, as there was no one near to shut off the power at the top. Ralph does not care to repeat the experience.

HARRY THAW WANTS JURY TO PASS ON HIS SANITY

NEW YORK, May 2.—Supreme Court Justice Keogh was petitioned in White Plains today by Clarence J. Shearn, counsel for Harry K. Thaw, for permission to let a jury pass upon Thaw's present mental status.

The motion was opposed by Deputy Attorney General Kellogg of Albany and former District Attorney Jerome. They contended that a jury is not as well qualified to pass upon Thaw's mental status as a judge, sitting alone, would be.

Justice Keogh, after argument on Thaw's request for a jury trial, fixed June 3 for a stated hearing on the application for his release from Matteawan. He will decide Saturday or Monday whether Thaw's fate will rest with a jury or the court.

SALMON SEASON OPENS

Outlook is for Best Salmon Fishing in History—$14,000 Paid in Licenses

PORTLAND, Ore., May 2.—What promises to be one of the best salmon fishing seasons in history opened on the Columbia river yesterday. Between 2500 and 3000 boats are on the water at the mouth of the river and both up and down the Columbia, more equipment is being used than in the past. Licenses paid to the state game fish warden amounted to $11,900. Twelve canneries and six cold storage plants will operate on the lower river. The Fishermen's Union has fixed the price at 6 1/2 and 7 1/2 cents a pound for small and large fish, but the packers have not yet reached an agreement.

Hand is Crushed
Olinda Derrick: Catching his hand between the stud bolt and a crosshead on the packing head of the engine at rig No. 4 of the Union in the valley field, Jack Sheppard had the member so severely crushed that for a time it was thought amputation of the entire hand would be necessary. Later it was determined that all but one finger could be saved. The finger was taken off. Mr. Sheppard has gone to the home of his mother at Berkeley, where he will remain until his hand recovers its usefulness, after which he is looked for back on No. 4.

Scotch Cattle Sell High
The Christmas sale of cattle and sheep which is held annually following the Smithfield fat stock show was held as usual at the cattle market in London. The quality was extremely good and the prices excellent. There have been fewer animals from the United States sent to England than formerly, and this has been the cause of this season's firmer prices. Many people who last year were buying American stock have been buying English meat. The pick of this market was 600 Scotch cattle, including Angus and other breeds, that brought as much as $10.57 for 100 pounds live weight.

Eccentricities of Fortune
"Pride has its ups and downs," said one young man.
"Yes," replied the other. "I used to make fun of a friend of mine who tried to sell me a sleigh for $7.35. Now he looks at me with scornful superiority as he takes my best girl out riding."
